ARTICLES (A, AN, THE)

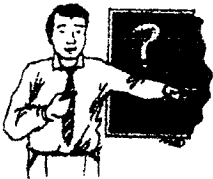

You know that there are 26 letters in the English alphabet.

The letters a,e,i,o,u are called vowels.

All the other letters are called consonants.

We use 'a' before a word beginning with a consonant sound.

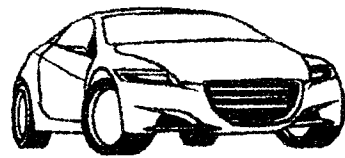

For example,

a teacher

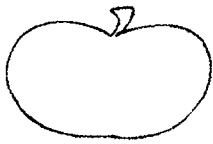

a flower

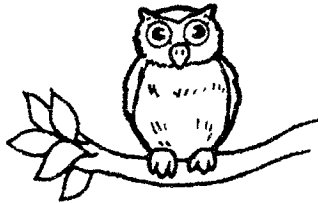

a car

We use 'an' before a word beginning with a vowel sound .

For example,

an apple

an owl

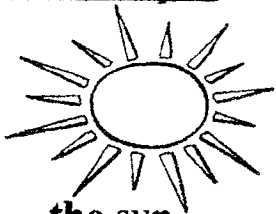

an umbrella

We use 'the' before the names of particular persons, places or things .

We also use 'the' before the names of rivers, oceans, mountains, holy books, famous buildings and unique objects (things which are only one of their kind).

For example,

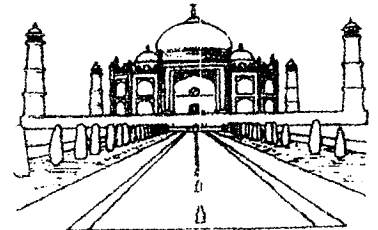

the sun

the moon

the Himalayas

the Taj Mahal

We use 'the' when we talk about a person or a thing for the second time.

For example,

Raj bought a story book. The story book is about animals .
