Take a tinfoil pan or a pie plate (a takeaway food plate will work well), and fill it (i)completely with water. Take five toothpicks and arrange them (ii)carefully in the shape of a pentagon. Allow the water with the toothpicks to come to a standstill. Make sure the tips of the toothpicks overlap, so your pentagon stays together. (iii)Before your audience arrives, dip the sixth toothpick in dishwashing liquid soap (do not reveal this magic ingredient to your audience who thinks this is a regular toothpick).

(iv)After your guests arrive, tell them that you will use magic to break this pentagon (v)completely. Take the 'magic toothpick' (the sixth one) and pretend to chant a magic spell e.g.: abracadabra. Now, dip the magical toothpick into the centre of the pentagon (Make sure you dip the soapy end in the water and try to get it (vi)close to the center of the shape—the soap shouldn't be visible anymore). The five toothpicks will fly apart (vii)immediately.
