CIRCULAR

Dear Parents,

Greetings from IIS Dammam!

This is to formally place on record that School has received reports regarding unsolicited communication from individual and private entities, claiming to have a direct association or recommendation or authorization from IISD for the purpose of promoting private tuitions, coaching or after-school academic and enrichment activities.

In this regard, the school hereby clarifies:

1. IISD does not have any affiliation, partnership, authorization or commercial arrangement with any such service provider.
2. The school does not solicit, promote or facilitate enrollment in any external programs conducted outside the formal school framework.
3. Parents are requested to treat such communications with due caution; School does not assume liability for any academic, financial, safety or related implications arising through such communications.

This notice is issued in the interest of transparency, institutional integrity, and compliance with applicable regulations.
